To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Mr. Sam Long for the position in which he is applying. I have known and worked with Mr. Long for one year as his Assistant Principal at Fremont Middle School. He has done an exemplary job in all areas of his position, and I am privileged to know him and have worked with him.

Mr. Long possesses an exceptional ability to connect with children of all ages. With a firm but friendly demeanor, he manages to keep control in the classroom and present both simple and complex concepts to all levels of students within the general education classroom as well as through his coaching. He is dependable and trustworthy, and is well respected among his students and colleagues. He shows mastery of his content area, and his classroom management is fair and consistent.

It is clearly evident that Mr. Long has a love for the teaching profession, and shows sincere care and concern for all of his students. I recommend Mr. Sam Long to you without reservation. If you have any further questions with regard to his background or qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Erin Parker
Fremont Middle School
